

Communication and English

Why study communication or English at Mount Union?

A diverse and innovative curriculum.
One-on-one personal attention.
Hands-on learning and research opportunities.
The proven success of our graduates.

Because Mount Union is where exceptional begins.

“Writing is tapping into a different realm of the heart. The ability to create, compose and deliver new ideas not only teaches others in the world, but it also teaches you about yourself.”

Jesse Phillips '14
Writing major

Proven Success

Employers of Our Communication and English Alumni
Canton Repository, Epic Systems, ESPN Cleveland, Fox 8 News Cleveland, Fund for American Studies, Moxie Pictures, Schell Games, WJER AM

Graduate Schools of Our Communication and English Alumni
Carnegie Mellon University, Michigan State University, Northwestern University, Ohio State University, Pepperdine University, Syracuse University

For More Information

Office of Admission
1972 Clark Ave., Alliance, OH 44601
(800) 334-6682 or (330) 823-2590
admission@mountunion.edu

Visit us online at mountunion.edu or stay connected with #MountUnion through social media.

Communication

Program | minor

Careers | event planner, personnel recruiter, public administrator, social service director, sales

No matter what career path you choose, written and oral communication skills will be crucial to your success. Our broad-based curriculum will prepare you to be an effective communicator by exposing you to a wide range of subjects including interpersonal and organizational communication, media, public relations and public advocacy. As a communication minor, you will gain the knowledge and experience you need to be a competitor in today's job market.

Visit | mountunion.edu/communication

Communication Studies

Program | major

Careers | human resources, non-profit fundraising and management, community organizer, negotiator, research analyst

Communication Studies is a dynamic and versatile field that offers an array of exciting and rewarding career paths as well as preparation for graduate school. You can gain the knowledge and experience you need to be successful in your career, personal and civic life. Our broad-based curriculum examines verbal and nonverbal communication across a variety of contexts including interpersonal, intercultural, mediated, public and organizational.

Visit | mountunion.edu/communication-studies

English

Program | major, minor

Careers | education, editing, publishing, library science, law

Build skills in reading, writing and critical thinking and explore a profession that values the understanding of human experience and the importance of excellence in communication through our program in English. Journey into historic periods and an array of genres while benefiting from the various approaches to understanding literature that our program provides. Join a lengthy list of alumni who have found value in the study of literature and applied all they have learned to successful careers in a variety of fields.

Visit | mountunion.edu/english

Integrated Media

Program | major

Careers | news anchor, media planner, journalist, videographer, creative director, web editor, producer

Media convergence is more important than ever before as technology and industries are drastically changing to meet the needs of today's society. Mount Union's curriculum will provide you with the knowledge and practical skills needed to meet the changing landscape of media and give you a competitive edge in the job market. Our broad-based curriculum is complemented by a student media lab and focuses both on traditional and social media.

Visit | mountunion.edu/integrated-media

Public Relations

Program | major

Careers | social media consultant, event planner, public relations specialist, lobbyist, press secretary

Learning to create meaningful relationships between an organization and its target markets is crucial in today's content-saturated world. You will be armed with the theoretical concepts and practical skills needed to be successful after graduation. By getting involved in campus media and our Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) chapter, you will have the opportunity to gain hands-on experience and apply the skills that you have developed in the classroom.

Visit | mountunion.edu/public-relations

Writing

Program | major, minor

Careers | professional/technical writing, editing, publishing, advertising, public relations, journalism, education, law

Exceptional writing is more than a skill – it is an art – one that can lead to exciting careers in a discipline that is quickly growing among programs offered at colleges and universities across the country. Our program's unique curriculum allows you to explore various styles including creative and professional writing. While honing your skills under the guidance of our talented and caring faculty, you will build your own portfolio of diverse writing samples that will position you to stand out among your peers.

Visit | mountunion.edu/writing

Non-Discrimination Statement

The University of Mount Union prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, gender, gender identity or expression, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, veteran status, marital or parental status, pregnancy, disability, or genetic information in student admissions, financial aid, educational or athletic programs, or employment as now or may hereafter be required by university policy and federal or state law. Inquiries regarding compliance may be directed to Pam Newbold, director of human resources and employee development, Beeghly Hall, (330) 829-6560, newbolph@moundunion.edu.

Consumer Information Disclosures

As a prospective student, federal regulations stipulate that you have the opportunity to access various types of consumer information.

If you wish to obtain a copy of the Campus Crime Report, please contact the Office of Admission. This report is published annually and includes information about campus security policies, procedures, and practices; and statistics for the occurrence, during the prior three calendar years, of criminal offenses that were reported to local police agencies or to a campus security authority.

If you wish to obtain a copy of the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act Report, please contact the Office of Admission. This report, which contains athletic program participation rates and financial support data, is compiled annually and available to the public.

Higher Education Report Card

The Higher Education Report Card is a federal requirement of Title II for all colleges and universities offering teacher preparation. The University of Mount Union is proud to announce that in the 16th year of reporting, the 2014-2015 academic class of new teachers met the statewide pass rate in the summary total of Ohio Assessment for Educator tests in which the University prepares teachers. This information will continue to serve as a benchmark as the University continues to build upon its rich tradition of preparing new educators.

Accreditations and Affiliations

The University of Mount Union is accredited by the following organizations: the Higher Learning Commission (www.hlcommission.org) as a Degree-Granting Institution; Department of Education of the State of Ohio; University Senate of the United Methodist Church; Ohio Board of Nursing; National Collegiate Athletic Association; Ohio College Association; Ohio Board of Regents (Certificate of Authorization); Ohio Athletic Association; Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Ohio; National Association of Schools of Music; Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant, Inc. (ARC-PA); and National Association of Sport and Physical Education-North American Society for Sport Management (NASPE-NASSM). The athletic training program is approved by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE); Mount Union's teacher education program is approved by the Ohio Department of Education and accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE); and Mount Union's Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry is approved by the American Chemical Society (ACS).