

History and Diversity Studies

Why study history or diversity at Mount Union?

One-on-one personal attention.
Broadened cultural and geographical horizons.
Hands-on learning and practical preparation.
A solid foundation in research and analysis.

Because Mount Union is where exceptional begins.

"I chose to major in history because I have always had immense passion for it. Ever since elementary school, I knew exactly what I wanted to study in college."

Corinne Midlik '13
History major

Proven Success

Employers of Our History and Diversity Studies Alumni

Government and political offices and school districts throughout the world

Graduate Schools of Our History and Diversity Studies Alumni

Boston College, Indiana State University, Marine Officer Training School, University of Georgia

For More Information

Office of Admission

1972 Clark Ave., Alliance, OH 44601
(800) 334-6682 or (330) 823-2590
admission@mountunion.edu

Visit us online at mountunion.edu or stay connected with #MountUnion through social media.

Africana Studies

Program | minor

Careers | social, community and humanitarian services, education, government, law, business, not-for-profit and public policy organizations

In today's global society, an understanding of diverse communities can provide a gateway to acceptance and appreciation. Explore the impact of people of African descent on American society and the world through the exploration of politics, history, culture, literature, spirituality and society. This program is helpful in professions where an understanding of ethnicity and social class is important, and it uniquely complements a host of majors. It is excellent preparation for graduate study in the humanities, arts and the social sciences.

Visit | mountunion.edu/africana-studies

American Studies

Program | major, minor

Careers | education, writing, business, government, social services

Conceptualize your future and build a major that suits it with our unique program in American studies. You'll benefit from a broad base of knowledge while deepening your understanding of American society and your place in it. You'll better comprehend your own heritage with empathy and understanding and learn about the diversity of the American experience, all while preparing for a rewarding career.

Visit | mountunion.edu/american-studies

Asian Studies [^]

Program | major, minor

Careers | business, trade, education, diplomacy, travel and tourism

Asia, home to more than one half of the world's population, has undergone a significant amount of economic and political change, contributing to its recent rise to prominence. Explore the fascinating history and culture of this area in our world through our comprehensive program that draws from the humanities, social sciences and arts. You'll enhance your role as a global citizen and develop knowledge and skills that are highly valued by employers.

Visit | mountunion.edu/asian-studies

Gender Studies

Program | minor

Careers | politics and lobbying, research, education, business, non profits

One of the fastest growing areas of research, gender impacts almost everything we do in today's society. Learn more about yourself and the world around you while exploring ideas and misconceptions about women and men. Our minor allows you to analyze the effects of cultural attitudes and social structures through an impressive array of courses while supplementing nearly any major.

Visit | mountunion.edu/gender-studies

History

Program | major, minor

Careers | education, law, government, business, writing, research

The social and political values of today are largely molded by historical knowledge, and our program will provide you with the foundation and skills to make an impact in our ever-changing world. You'll engage in research and analysis while developing an understanding of the past and specific historical periods. All the while, your multicultural understanding will be enhanced by an appreciation of U.S. history and the histories of other peoples and cultures.

Visit | mountunion.edu/history

Peacebuilding and Social Justice

Program | minor

Careers | mediators, educators, entrepreneurs, activists

In our global community, peace means more than merely the absence of war or other conflict, but also includes the conditions needed for humans to flourish – food and clean water, education for all, security and other human rights. This interdisciplinary program draws upon the humanities, arts, social sciences and professions, complementing a wide variety of majors and preparing students to become engaged citizens of the world.

Visit | mountunion.edu/peacebuilding-minor

Non-Discrimination Statement

The University of Mount Union prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, gender, gender identity or expression, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, veteran status, marital or parental status, pregnancy, disability, or genetic information in student admissions, financial aid, educational or athletic programs, or employment as now or may hereafter be required by university policy and federal or state law. Inquiries regarding compliance may be directed to Pam Newbold, director of human resources and employee development, Beeghly Hall, (330) 829-6560, newbolph@moundunion.edu.

Consumer Information Disclosures

As a prospective student, federal regulations stipulate that you have the opportunity to access various types of consumer information.

If you wish to obtain a copy of the Campus Crime Report, please contact the Office of Admission. This report is published annually and includes information about campus security policies, procedures, and practices; and statistics for the occurrence, during the prior three calendar years, of criminal offenses that were reported to local police agencies or to a campus security authority.

If you wish to obtain a copy of the Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act Report, please contact the Office of Admission. This report, which contains athletic program participation rates and financial support data, is compiled annually and available to the public.

Higher Education Report Card

The Higher Education Report Card is a federal requirement of Title II for all colleges and universities offering teacher preparation. The University of Mount Union is proud to announce that in the 16th year of reporting, the 2014-2015 academic class of new teachers met the statewide pass rate in the summary total of Ohio Assessment for Educator tests in which the University prepares teachers. This information will continue to serve as a benchmark as the University continues to build upon its rich tradition of preparing new educators.

^ In the fall of 2016, these academic programs will be discontinued. Students enrolled at the institution during or prior to the 2015-2016 Academic Year will have the opportunity to pursue and complete the programs. These programs will not be available to students entering in the fall of 2016 or after.

Accreditations and Affiliations

The University of Mount Union is accredited by the following organizations: the Higher Learning Commission (www.hlcommission.org) as a Degree-Granting Institution; Department of Education of the State of Ohio; University Senate of the United Methodist Church; Ohio Board of Nursing; National Collegiate Athletic Association; Ohio College Association; Ohio Board of Regents (Certificate of Authorization); Ohio Athletic Association; Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Ohio; National Association of Schools of Music; Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant, Inc. (ARC-PA); and National Association of Sport and Physical Education-North American Society for Sport Management (NASPE-NASSM). The athletic training program is approved by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE); Mount Union's teacher education program is approved by the Ohio Department of Education and accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE); and Mount Union's Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry is approved by the American Chemical Society (ACS).