

5 Takeaways from the First 15 Weeks: Students

The First 15 Weeks: Lessons from the Journey

01

You Don't Have to Have it All Figured Out

College is a time to explore interests, discover new opportunities, and learn more about yourself.

02

Asking for Help is a Strength

The most successful students aren't the ones who never struggle - they're the ones who reach out when they need it.

03

Everyone's Experience Looks Different

There's no single "right" way to do college. Find the balance and opportunities that work for you.

04

Challenges are Part of the Process

Homesickness, setbacks, and uncertainty are normal parts of growth during your first semester.

05

You Belong Here

Mount Union believes you will succeed here. Give yourself grace and trust the process.
