

Service Organizations '22-'23

Alpha Phi Omega

Kaylee Adkins, president

Service Organization

Dr. Bryan Boatright and Abby Schroeder, campus advisors

Instagram: @apoxiupsilon64;

Twitter: @APOXiUpsilon64

Alpha Phi Omega is a national co-ed service fraternity that provides opportunities for campus, community, state, and national service projects. Membership is open to all interested students, and recruitment occurs twice a year.

Dance Marathon

Megan Houvig, president

Service & Student-Run Philanthropy

Chris Pontius, campus advisor

This organization is aimed to raise money for childhood cancer and illnesses. The main goal is by April to host a 12-hour dance marathon for all campus members who wish to participate. At the end of the event the total amount of money made will be revealed. Our mission statement is we are one generation fighting for the next. We dance these 12 hours for the kids that can't.

Habitat for Humanity

Kaylee Adkins, president

Student-Run Philanthropy

Abby Schroeder, campus advisor

The purpose of this organization is to serve the University of Mount Union and the Alliance community through students, providing the opportunity to partner with the Habitat for Humanity organization, helping families in the area by building housing. Further, Habitat for Humanity at Mount Union seeks to educate the campus and the community about the positive effects of volunteering for the organization.

World Service Club

Haley Hunt, president

Christina LaRoy, president

Academic Organization, Service Organization

Dr. Hans Tritico, campus advisor

World Service Club seeks to provide experience working with a diverse group of people by helping communities in developing world countries through service-based projects. World Service Club provides international design opportunities which will further our education to help us become more well-rounded individuals.
