As I prepare this year's annual report letter, our thoughts remain with our faculty, staff, students, alumni, friends, healthcare workers, and first responders. Over the course of now almost 175 years (2021 marks Mount Union's 175th anniversary), there have been many times Mount Union has needed to face challenges by rallying together to overcome and clear imposing obstacles to accomplish extraordinary things. I am incredibly grateful, and at the same time proud, of how the sons and daughters of "the grand old college" rallied together to manage our way through the tough and turbulent circumstances of the year 2020.

In an ordinary year, when you walk onto Mount Union's campus, you can feel it in the air. There is a sense of community, a sense of belonging, and a sense of home. Today, while we are physically separated from the activities we know and love on campus, as well as from one another, we are still connected. We are connected by our love of Mount Union; the hope in what the future holds for our students, alumni, friends, and communities; and most importantly, by a purpose. A purpose to ensure that the Mount Union education and experiences we all share, even from afar, is what our students are still being provided, which will propel them forward to success.

Now that we begin to turn our attention to 2021, I want to take a moment to reflect warmly on how this past year brought out the incredible giving spirit of the Mount Union community to make the above a reality. I am reminded daily that so many of you increased your efforts to invest in our students by supporting critical funds like the Student Emergency Fund, scholarship aid, and the Dick Merriman and Margot Kelman President's Rescue Fund. Your gifts made it possible for hundreds of students to return to our campus this past fall, and for that, we are eternally grateful.

It is with tremendous Purple Raider pride that I thank all the alumni and friends by presenting to you the 2019-2020 Honor Roll of Investors. Thank you for your continued faith and belief in the University of Mount Union.

All my best to you and yours,

TOTAL GIVING HISTORY

In 2006, the Rachel Boyce Lang Foundation generously established an endowed fund that reinstated Mount Union's international choir tour after nearly three decades of purely domestic travel. The Rachel Boyce Lang International Choir Tour fund sponsors, in part, a life-enriching global touring experience for choir members once every four years. Pictured above is the choir's most recent tour to Scotland in 2019.

Each ^ denotes deceased.

STUDENT EMERGENCY FUND

Mount Union students and their families, like many others in our nation and around the world, are suffering hardships due the COVID-19 pandemic. For some students, this time period has resulted in a dire financial emergency. Additional costs related to travel, moving expenses, wifi access, food, and rent, in addition to the possibility of potential unemployment and other impacts, has prompted the University to launch the Student Emergency Fund.

ENDOWED FUNDS

Endowments are permanent funds that provide support for academic pursuits and programs at the University of Mount Union. Private gifts to the University create these endowments. Donors determine the purpose for which endowment income may be spent. Some common purposes include scholarships and awards; chairs, professorships, and other faculty and staff positions; support for an academic program of the University, department, building, or area; academic research; and the purchase of journals, books, art, technology, or equipment

Since the institution's inception in 1846, thousands of donors have contributed to endowment funds established for hundreds of purposes at Mount Union.

Generous support for higher education, coupled with conservative and effective investment strategies, has resulted in an endowment currently valued at $145 million (as of June 30, 2020).

NEW ENDOWED FUNDS AWARDED IN 2020-2021

KRAMERS MAKE A LASTING IMPACT

When Professor Emeritus of Psychology Dr. Steve and Kathy Kramer first arrived at Mount Union in 1974, they anticipated staying for a few short years. Little did they know that 46 years later, they still would be living in their first and only house in Alliance, having developed a deep and meaningful connection to the campus community they now call “home.” This summer, after careful planning and consideration, the Kramers decided to solidify Mount Union as their forever home by reserving niches in the new columbarium within Victoria’s Garden and established an endowed scholarship opportunity for current and future Raiders.

Perhaps most well-known by students and alumni alike for the Wilderness and Social Responsibility trips, Steve created these two experiences 44 and 30 respective years ago.

“In all my years as a faculty member,” he explained, “those trips are some of our greatest memories and where I felt I’ve been able to make the greatest impact.”

The Kramers are also grateful for a supportive community where they could raise their children.

“I taught young children for 36 years, yet being a mother of our two daughters was my primary joy and responsibility,” Kathy shared. “Mount Union has given us all a good life, and we always want to support what they do.”

Committed to the University’s top priority of addressing affordability, the Kramers established the Steve and Kathy Kramer Endowed Scholarship this year. “We’ve always believed in the impact of philanthropy and feel we should support causes that we believe in.”

The Steve and Kathy Kramer endowed scholarship will provide support for junior and senior students who demonstrate active service in the community and a commitment to positively impacting the protection of our environment. Because of the Kramer’s dedication to providing exceptional experiences and opportunities at Mount Union, Purple Raiders will continue to be positively impacted for many years to come.

LIFELONG DEVOTION: MOUNT UNION ALUMNA NAMES THE STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER AND FOOTBALL COACHING WING

Mrs. Violet (Bica '44) Ross is one of Mount Union's most loyal and generous benefactors and an inaugural inductee of the Diamond Circle. Her most recent gift to the University will name The Violet Bica Ross Center for Student Success and The Violet Bica Ross Football Coaching Wing.

The Violet Bica Ross Center for Student Success, to be located in the Kolenbrander-Harter Information Center, will empower students in the strategic pursuit of their goals as they relate to personal transition, academic progress and success, and career planning. With Ross' career in teaching and school psychology, she understands the importance of a program that provides students the resources needed to successfully navigate their entire college experience.

"I have a long-term commitment to education and take great interest in our students," Ross said. "I am happy to support an area on campus that inspires them to be their best." This center will focus on advocacy, problem solving, retention, and will help equip students for fulfilling lives, meaningful work, and responsible citizenship.

Keeping Mount Union's football program close to her heart, Ross also named The Violet Bica Ross Football Coaching Wing, which is located in the newly constructed Dom and Karen Capers Football Coaching Center. The 5,600-square foot building features a team meeting room, coaches' offices and conference rooms.

"I'm so proud of what our football team accomplished under the leadership of Larry and Vince Kehres," said Ross. "I am happy to support an area for new Head Football Coach Geoff Dartt and his staff to show my gratitude for their hard work and dedication to our young men."

"Through Mrs. Ross' unprecedented and generous investment in Mount Union, we are able to advance the University's commitment to educational excellence," said Gregory King, vice president for university advancement. "It shows others the power of philanthropy and the incredible impact one person can have on a University."

Over the years, Ross has supported the University's top priorities on campus including the Bica-Ross Hall, Bracy Hall, Dom and Karen Capers Football Coaching Center, Dewald Chapel, Hartshorn and Union Avenue townhouses, Hoover-Price Campus Center, Kolenbrander-Harter Information Center, Mount Union Stadium, Sigma Nu house, The Violet Bica Ross and L. Clayton Ross Scholarship, the Virginia Bica Endowed Scholarship, the engineering program, The Rachel Boyce Lang International Choir Tour and The Mount Union Fund.

Mount Union is grateful to Ross for her remarkable gifts to the University, commitment to students, as well as her campus leadership. Currently, she serves as the Honorary Chair of Mount Union's Inspiring Minds, Transforming Lives campaign. In conjunction with the University's strategic plan, this $50 million-dollar comprehensive campaign will support four main funding priorities: scholarship opportunities, facility enhancements, innovation in curriculum and experiential learning, and The Mount Union Fund.

The Forever Mount Society recognizes alumni and friends such as (l-r) Bob Speer '60, Linda Miller, Lisa Schneider, Lee Miller '62, and Julianne (Sera '60) and Frederick '62 Klippert for their loyalty giving to Mount Union.

A FAMILY LEGACY

"We knew we belonged here," Tim explained. "There is just something about the school that made us feel at home." Both being confident in the value of the education they received, Tim and Margaret also encouraged their children to continue the family tradition of attending Mount Union. As fate had it, David Cotton '09 and Annie (Cotton '13) Schultz became the third generation of Purple Raiders in the Cotton family.

Tim and Margaret are grateful for their family's Mount Union experience, which is why they continue to give back so generously. They shared, "Mount Union offered us lifelong relationships with faculty, staff, and friends that surpassed our expectations. It was because of those relationships that we were able to create an exceptional foundation for our careers and family."

As active alumni in the 1846 and Forever Mount societies, they continued by saying, "Our confidence in the leadership of Mount Union has inspired us to become annual contributors to support the mission of the University. The opportunities we were given have played an integral part in our paths, and we believe our gifts can help make a difference and provide equally impactful experiences for future generations of students. The longer we live, the stronger the feeling grows that we are forever part of the Mount Union family."

FUND SUPPORT

THE MOUNT UNION FUND

The Mount Union Fund is a critical source of revenue that underwrites virtually every aspect of a Mount Union education. Because of the generosity of alumni, employees, parents, and friends who provide gifts to The Mount Union Fund each year, our students are able to enjoy an exceptional educational experience. Annual support for The Mount Union Fund ensures scholarships are awarded, books are given to deserving students, study abroad experiences are made possible, and state-of-the-art equipment is added to the classroom. Unrestricted in nature, every gift to The Mount Union Fund is utilized where it is needed most and supports the operating costs essential to building quality into every aspect of college life. We are truly grateful for the nearly 3,000 donors who contributed to The Mount Union Fund this past fiscal year.

1846 SOCIETY

Our premier annual giving society, the 1846 Society, honors and recognizes those donors who share a special commitment to the advancement of the University. Through an annual investment at the leadership level of $1,250 or more to The Mount Union Fund, donors become essential partners in our mission to prepare students for fulfilling lives, meaningful work, and responsible citizenship. The University salutes the following individuals who made a significant difference during the last fiscal year (July 1, 2019-June 30, 2020).

RECORD-BREAKING DAY OF GIVING TOTALS NEARLY $500K

The University of Mount Union’s third annual day of giving, titled “Raiders Give,” saw an extraordinary level of generosity from the Mount Union community, as records were shattered from the previous two years.

In total, the June 16 event raised $493,306 for The Mount Union Fund, which was an 89 percent increase in gifts from the 2019 event, all while being done virtually across the country. A total of 1,014 donors gave gifts to the fund — an increase of more than 130 donors from 2019 — which supports student scholarships, technology and other critical student needs across Mount Union’s campus.

The 2020 event also provided donors with the option to donate to Mount Union’s COVID-19 Student Emergency Fund, for which more than $175,000 was raised in addition to what was already given over the course of the past two months. This effort was driven by a special challenge from longtime Alliance natives Jack and Madge Peters, who generously provided the lead gift to spearhead the challenge.

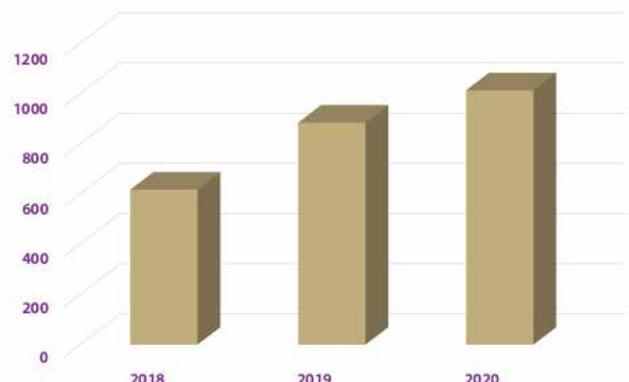

“Raiders Give was a phenomenal success thanks to the generosity and support of our alumni and friends in the Mount Union community,” said Caitie Shimp ’17, assistant director of the Mount Union Fund. “As students and their families began to feel the impacts of COVID-19, Mount Union established the COVID-19 Student Emergency Fund. During Raiders Give, our community showed its exceptional support for those suffering hardships during the pandemic, allowing the institution to extend its support for those impacted by unexpected and urgent expenses at a time when it is needed most.”

Donors had the opportunity to give for 24 hours beginning at midnight on June 16. The Trustee Challenge was the primary goal of the day, which was to reach 1,000 donors, resulting in an extra $100,000 donation from members of the Board of Trustees. Additional challenges that were met during the event included the Young Alumni Challenge, Faculty and Staff Challenge, Class of 1970 Challenge, and the Parent and Family Challenge.

VOLUNTEERS

The spirit of giving at Mount Union does not end with financial support. Many volunteer their time and talents through several avenues of engagement. Alumni can choose to engage more fully in the life and success of the University by participating on the Alumni Association Executive Board. In addition, some alumni and friends choose to give their time as members of the Board of Trustees and various advisory boards and councils.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Alumni Association is to be actively engaged in activities that promote and provide leadership to the University.

IMANI ELKINS '22
INTERVENTION SPECIALIST MAJOR

"It takes a village, and I consider donors a part of my village. Their support is truly a blessing, and I'm thankful that they believed in me and my education, without ever meeting me."

As a member of the Mount Union Cheerleading Team and a student leader on campus, she is known by many as a "bright light" in the Mount Union community.

On top of transitioning to living and learning remotely, Imani worried about how she would afford groceries, pay her bills, and buy books for her summer courses.

"I am my main source of financial support, and COVID-19 made getting a job difficult. I work for the University, and the virus put a complete halt on my employment. My mom's job took away the opportunity for overtime and gave each employee alternating days to work, which put a big dent in her pay."

OLIVIA ANDREWS '21
INTERVENTION SPECIALIST MAJOR

“Thank you for giving me the opportunity and for putting your trust in Mount, just as much as I’ve put my trust in Mount.”

A psychology major with a passion for supporting others, she knew exactly what she wanted to do with her future when stepping foot on campus. Olivia is thankful for the generous support from alumni and friends and the difference it makes in the lives and educational experiences of Mount Union students.

“Donor generosity has definitely impacted my educational experience in and outside of the classroom. Donors have given me the opportunity to excel, to get to where I need to be in the future.”

Olivia also shared how donor support has directly impacted her experience in the Department of Psychology.

“They make things available, like study rooms or even a counseling room with a one-way mirror. I would not have been able to experience that without the support of donors.”
