To avoid conflicts of interest and to prevent problems of safety, security, supervision, and morale, the University has established restrictions on the hiring of immediate family members. The University will accept and consider applications for employment from any relative of a current employee. Generally, however, the University will not hire or transfer individuals, including student workers, into positions if the individual will directly supervise or be supervised by an immediate family member. Also, a relative of an employee generally will not be placed in a position where they will work with or have access to sensitive information about their family member. Generally, faculty or staff members are not permitted to participate in any decision or final recommendation on hiring, promotion, tenure, wage, dismissal, or any other condition of employment of their immediate family members.

If the Director of Human Resources becomes aware of or determines the existence of an actual or apparent conflict, they will forward a recommendation to the president for final review and determination. If a relationship develops during the course of employment that violates this policy, the University, through the Office of Human Resources, will work with the individuals involved to resolve the situations. In all cases, the needs of the University determine the resolution, including transfer and/or termination.
