

► Greek Alumnae Benefit Area Women

A Greek alumnae gathering “of women, about women and for women” was held on the Mount Union campus, benefiting WOW (Women Off Welfare) of the Alliance YWCA.

Featured entertainment for the evening was provided by soprano Rachel Eggers Shaffer

’61, a retired
assistant professor of music at the College who currently coaches

voice students. She was accompanied by pianist Joyce Herren Gorby ’49, a private instructor of piano and accompanist at Mount.

The show, entitled “Life, Love and Broadway,” featured songs from popular Broadway musicals including Funny Girl, Miss Saigon, My Fair Lady, Carousel, Fiddler on the Roof, Guys and Dolls, The Secret Garden and Phantom of the Opera.

Judy Rennels Tolerton ’63 was on hand to explain the YWCA’s new WOW program and its benefits to the Alliance community.
